Tilburg University

In 1927, the Roman Catholic University of Commerce was established in Tilburg, The Netherlands. In 1963, after many name changes, the name finally became Tilburg University. The University originally began with just 28 students and has grown to almost 14,000. With roughly 1,200 international students enrolled at Tilburg, their slogan, "Understanding Society", is well intact.

Tilburg School of Economics and Management

The Roman Catholic University of Commerce was established in 1927, with 28 economics students enrolled on the first day of classes. The Tilburg School of Economics and Management (TSEM) became what it is today in 1963. TSEM has almost 6000 students, with around 8% being international students.

The City: Tilburg

About

Tilburg is the 6th largest city in The Netherlands. It is home to Tilburg University, as well as the TiasNimbas Business School.

Tilburg offers a variety of cultural activities for its visitors. The city is rich in culture that includes many festivals, art, sporting events, and amusement parks.

Tilburg has three railway systems, but the main source of transportation is biking. The community in Tilburg is known as a group of people who work hard and play hard.

Life in Tilburg

Average Living Expense Per Month:

- 680-810 euros total

Living in Tilburg is relatively cheap compared to larger cities in the country. The feel of the area is similar to that of TAMU.
Sample Courses (Spring)

- Econometrics
- Empirical Finance
- Games and Economic Behavior
- History of Economic Thought
- Macroeconomics of Pensions and Aging
- Microeconometrics
- Microeconomics of Life and Cycle Behavior
- Risk Theory
- Macroeconomics 3 for EBE: Dynamic Models and Policy
- Macroeconomics 3 for ECO: Dynamic Models and Policy
- Macroeconomics 4 for EBE: Growth and Institutions
- Philosophy of Science
- Quantitative Finance
- Strategic Entrepreneurship
- International Trade
- Introduction to Entrepreneurship
- Pension System Design

The Exchange Program

Exchange Students may go to Tilburg for a semester, or even a year if they please. The exchange program offers a wide variety of business and economics courses for exchange to choose from including microeconomics, risk theory, and pension design.

A place without the hustle and bustle of the city, but the same amount of amusement!

To Apply

Admission Requirements

- Show sufficient knowledge in math and economics
- Be nominated by TAMU
- Application form found at:

http://www.tilburguniversity.edu/education/exchange-programmes/applicationprocedure/