

Why Join the CUEB Study Abroad Program?

- ❖ It's safe! China is very safe and has a low crime rate.
- ❖ Experience life in China while earning credit toward your Economics degree.
- ❖ TAMU Presence: Dr. Qi Li is a Dean at CUEB and several TAMU Economics PhD alumna teach at CUEB.
- ❖ English: While English is not widely spoken in China, it IS the language of instruction at CUEB, and all students, faculty, and staff are fluent in English.
- ❖ Excursions: CUEB has such a central location that you will be able to travel almost anywhere in China. Domestic flights within China are fairly inexpensive. Around Beijing there are numerous sights to see including the Great Wall and the Forbidden City!
- ❖ Expenses: Total cost is low and a breakdown is available at studyabroad.tamu.edu
- ❖ Scholarships: CUEB plans to offer each student a monthly stipend of around 2,000RMB, close to $300USD!

Pre- Departure (at TAMU)

Application Process

Decide Early! Plan Ahead!

- ❖ Application available at studyabroad.tamu.edu
- ❖ Discuss your plans with one of our advisors ahead of time!
- ❖ Contact Savannah Maxwell if you have any questions savannahfm@exchange.tamu.edu

CUEB Exchange Program

Capital University of Economics and Business in Beijing, China

Semester Terms:

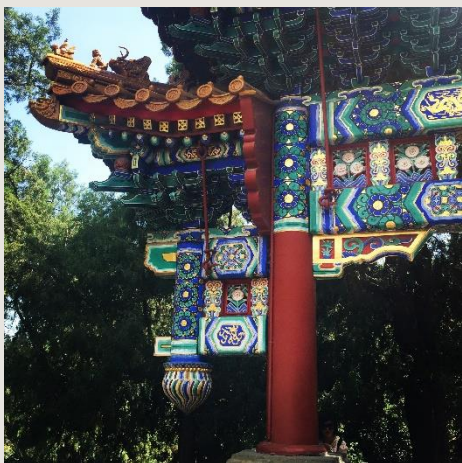

Fall Semester: September-January

Spring Semester: February-June

Summer Session: June-July (4 weeks)

Full Year: September-June

For more information about the CUEB study abroad program, do not hesitate to contact Savannah Maxwell

COURSES:

During a regular semester, students will take 12 hours (4 courses)

During the Summer, students will take 6 hours (2 courses)

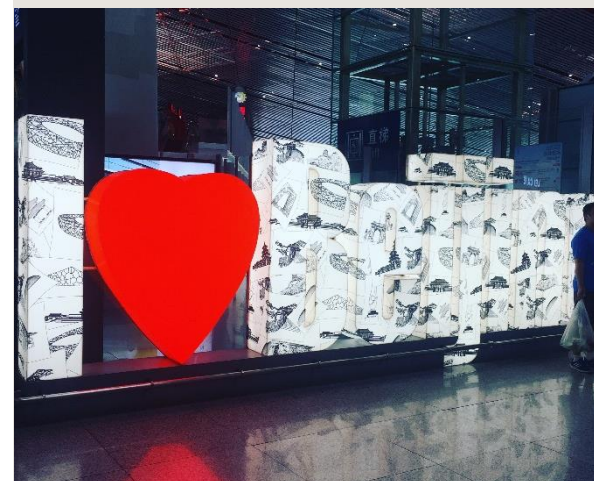

Eligibility:

- Must have a GPA of 2.5 or above
- Be a TAMU student for at least one semester prior to application

Costs to Students: (estimated)

• TAMU tuition& fees:	$4,755
• Estimated Round Trip Airfare:	$2,400
• Visa:	$140
• Housing:	$2,344
• Meals:	$513
• Misc. books, supplies:	$705
• Personal Spending:	$957

- Total semester estimated cost: $11,674
- Total Summer estimated cost: $5,767